Jeff. Davis' Proclamation to the Rebel Army.

&c., &c., &c., &c., &c.

From Cincinnati. CINCINNATI, February 15 - A Nashville dispatch to the Gazette gives official news that Gen. Sherman entered Jackson, Miss., on the 5th. The enemy offered but little resistance. They are supposed to have fallen back across the Pearl river. It is believed the rebels are receiving reinforcements from Dalton. Nothing new from Gen. Thomas' front.

Veterans are rapidly returning to the army. From New Orleans. New ORLEANS, February 7 .- There are no army movements of importance to note in the

New York. February 14 - A special to the Herald, dated Headquarters Department of Western Virginia, to-day, has the following: A portion of the guerrilla party that stopped the train on the Baltimore and Ohio Railroad, and robbed the passengers, were overtaken and captured a few hours after the robbery was committed. From the best information it does not seem they numbered over thirty eight. We captured ten of them. rebel armies: Soldiers of the Army of the Confederate States: In the long and bloody war in which your country is engaged, you have achieved many noble triumphs; you have won glorious victories over vastly more numerous host; you have cheerfully borne privations and toil, to which you were unused; you have readily submitted to restraint upon your individual will, that the citizen might better perform his duty to the State as a soldier. To all these you have lately added another triumph-the noblest of human conquest-a victory over yourselves. As the time drew near when you who first enlisted in the service might well have been expected to claim relief from your arduous labors and restoration to the endearment of home, you have heeded only the call of your suffering country. Again you came to tender your services for the public defence-a free offering which only such patriotism as yours could HOUSE FURNISHING GOODS. make a triumph worthy of the cause to which you are devoted. I would in vain attempt adequately to express the emotions with which I received Tin, Copper and Sheet Iron Ware the testimonials of confidence and regard which you have recently addressed to me, to some of those first received, separate acknowledgements were returned, but it is now apparent that a like generous enthusiasm prevades the whole army, and that the only exception to such a magnanimous tender will be of those who, having origin ally entered for the war, cannot display anew their zeal in the public service. It is therefore deemed appropriate, and it is hoped will be equally acceptable, to make a general acknowledgement instead of successive special responses. Would that it were possible to render my thanks to you in person, and in the name of our common country as well as in my own, while pressing the Cooking Stoy hand of each war worn veteran, to recognize his title to our love, gratitude and admiration.
